

How Do I Use the Orsten-Research Web Book?

Simply click a link in the table of contents below, and a PDF file in print format will appear in a new tab or window (preferable). Resize the window for the best reading onscreen experience (the font size will adapt to the window size). Do not forget to close unused windows/tabs in order not to clutter your screen! You can do so easily by clicking the "Back" button in the browser! The PDF files are ready for printing. You can download the files, print, and collect them.

Note: At some point in time, the PDF files may contain a link to the follow-up article that will appear in the same window or tab, allowing for a more comfortable onscreen reading experience.
